

THE BOCA RATON observer

THE AUTHORITY ON BOCA

MODERN REFUGE

A West Boca Home
Reflects Its Owners'
Love For Sleek,
Sustainable Design

C'MON GET HAPPY!

25 Tips And Trends
For Creating A
Vibrant, Cheerful
Home

GREAT ESCAPE

Designer Touches
Transform A
Traditional Manse
Into A Stunning
Vacation Retreat

THE HIGH LIFE

Boca Raton's
Newest Condo
Residences Spare
No Luxuries

MARCH 2015

THE HOME &
DESIGN
ISSUE

Barefoot Bohemian

HGTV Host Genevieve Gorder's
Career Is Soaring, But Off-Screen The Talented Designer Keeps It Real

happenings

THE ESSENTIAL SOCIAL DIGEST

BANJOS AND BEETHOVEN

Festival Of The Arts Boca Presents An Array Of Cultural Offerings

Whether it's film, literature, music or dance that turns you on, the Ninth Annual Festival of the Arts Boca, presented by the Schmidt Family Centre for the Arts, promises 10 days of diverse cultural experiences for every inclination. The event is scheduled to take place March 6-15 at the Mizner Park Amphitheater and Mizner Park Cultural Arts Center.

"Throughout the 10-day cultural celebration, festival-goers will enjoy a rich and diverse lineup as we bring back artists from years past and welcome some of the greatest intellectual leaders of our time," said Charlie Siemon, chair and co-executive producer of the Festival of the Arts Boca.

performances by husband-and-wife banjo duo, Abigail Washburn and 10-time Grammy winner Bela Fleck; international ballet stars, featuring principal dancer and choreographer Guillaume Côté from the National Ballet of Canada & Friends; and a Mozart Gala featuring Sir James Galway on flute, Conrad Tao on piano, and Arnaud Susmann on violin, with the Festival Orchestra Boca led by Constantine Kitsopoulos.

This season's Authors & Ideas program will feature an impressive lineup, including Jamie Bernstein, daughter of composer Leonard Bernstein; Michael Grunwald, best-selling author, senior staff writer for Politico magazine and Time contributor; and Richard Ford, best-known

"Throughout the 10-day cultural celebration, festival-goers will enjoy a rich and diverse lineup as we bring back artists from years past and welcome some of the greatest intellectual leaders of our time."

— Charlie Siemon, chair and co-executive producer, Festival of the Arts Boca

The festival opens on March 6 with the Florida premiere of the 10-time Academy Award-winning film, "West Side Story." Festival Orchestra Boca will play Leonard Bernstein's electrifying score live, while the newly re-mastered film is shown in glorious high-definition on the big screen with the original vocals and dialogue intact. Other highlights will include for his Pulitzer Prize-winning novel, "Independence Day."

"The Festival will close with a spectacular concert featuring the Young People's Chorus of New York in Beethoven's immortal Ninth Symphony," Siemon revealed.

For more information, call 866-571-2787 or 561-368-8445, or visit festivalboca.com.

Abigail Washburn and Bela Fleck

Conrad Tao

Sir James Galway

Young People's Chorus of New York

Michael Grunwald

Richard Ford

» Around Town includes news about community and social events, parties, charities, fundraisers, special recognitions and more. Have something you'd like us to include? For consideration, please email no less than 500 words about the event, along with photos that include caption information, a phone number and a website address to editor@bocatonobserver.com. Please write "Around Town" in the subject line, and note that submissions will be edited for clarity and length. Photos become the property of The Boca Raton Observer.