March 2018

Now-April 8

“ARTHUR CARTER: SCULPTURES AND DRAWINGS”

Famous for his New York City monuments at NYU and on Park Avenue South, Carter prizes precision, mathematics and the elegance of the Golden Ratio in his abstract sculptures and wall-mounted reliefs and drawings.

KAKI KING at Kravis Center, 701 Okeechobee Blvd, West Palm Beach; 7:30 p.m.; $35; 561/832-7469, kravis.org.

A prodigious guitarist and composer with a chameleonic approach to genre, Kaki King has collaborated with artists ranging from Timbaland to the Mountain Goats. This concert experience, "The Neck is a Bridge to the Body," is a multimedia extravaganza in which her guitar melds into the psychedelic imagery projecting behind her.

“HANDLE WITH CARE” at Sandler Center at Levix JCC, 9801 Donna Klein Blvd, Boca Raton; $25-$40; 561/558-2520, levisjcc.org.

A missing corpse on Christmas Eve kick-starts this comedic and otherwise heartwarming play, in which an inept deliveryman and the Hebrew-speaking recipient of the stolen corpse find romance amid the chaos and miscommunication.

---

BILL MURRAY, JAN VOGLER & FRIENDS at Mizner Park Amphitheater, 590 Plaza Real, Boca Raton; 7:30 p.m.; $25-$125; 561/368-8445, festivaloftheartsboca.org.

Murray, the esteemed comic actor and Oscar nominee, headlines an evening of music, poetry and prose. The former "SNL" lounge singer will tackle material from Gershwin, Mancini and "West Side Story," alongside cellist Vogler and others.

“FUNNY GIRL” in concert at Royce Auditorium at FAU, 777 Glades Road, Boca Raton; 2 p.m.; $20-$45; 800/564-9539, fauevents.com.

FAU’s Klezmer Company Orchestra presents a concert version of the Julie Styne musical about Broadway ingénue Fanny Brice and theater impresario Florenz Ziegfeld. A full cast and orchestra perform under the musical direction of maestro Aaron Kula.

‘E.T. THE EXTRA-TERRESTRIAL’ SCREENING WITH LIVE ORCHESTRA at Mizner Park Amphitheater, 590 Plaza Real, Boca Raton; 6 p.m.; $15-$125; 561/368-8445, festivaloftheartsboca.org.

Steven Spielberg helped normalize alien life with this family-friendly classic. Festival of the Arts Music Director Constantine Kitsopoulos leads the Boca Symphonia through a live performance of John Williams’ evocative score.

BILL MAHER at Kravis Center, 701 Okeechobee Blvd, West Palm Beach; 7:30 p.m.; $40.50-$255.50; 561/832-7469, kravis.org.

President Trump has been keeping this comedian’s weekly talk show, "Real Time," stocked with its most provocative material in years. Expect Palm Beach’s most famous semi-resident to consume much of the oxygen in Maher’s new standup tour.

ANA POPOVIC at Funky Biscuit, 303 S.E. Mizner Blvd, Boca Raton; 8 p.m.; $25-$45; 561/395-2929, funkybiscuit.com.

The exotic, Belgrade-born singer and guitarist has become a major player in the international blues community. She is touring in support of Trilogy, her three-disc celebration of funk, blues-rock and jazz music, which merges original songs with covers by Duke Ellington, Chaka Khan, Tom Waits and others.
March 2

CATCH A RISING STAR: SOPRANOS NIGHT at Crest Theatre, 51 N. Swinton Ave, Delray Beach; 8 p.m.; $47-$67; 561/243-7922, oldschoolsquare.org.

Actor Vincent Pastore, most famous for starring as the colorfully nicknamed “Big Pussy” on “The Sopranos,” headlines this comedy night. Football player turned bodyguard and comedian Johnny Sialiano opens the show.

March 2-3

DOM IRRERA at Boca Black Box, 8221 Glades Road, Suite 10, Boca Raton; 8 p.m. Friday, 7 and 9 p.m. Saturday; $30-$40; 561/483-9036, bocablockbox.com. Irrera is a stalwart road warrior of standup, mixing pungent observations about life with self-deprecating confessions. His friendly, easy-going delivery often clashes with scabrous material, so consider this your warning.

March 3

CELtic woman: “Home-coming” at fau, 777 glades road, Boca Raton; 7:30 p.m.; $48-$110; 800/564-9539, fabevents.com. This all-female quartet has been spreading the joy of Irish music to a worldwide audience for the past 18 years, to the tune of more than nine million albums sold. Its stirring live shows feature timeless music, ethereal vocals and lavish production values.

March 3

CHAD HOOPES AND Nikolay khozyainov at Mizner Park Amphitheater, 590 Plaza Real, Boca Raton; 8 p.m.; $15-$150; 561/368-8445, festivalofheartsboca.org. Backed by the Boca Symphony, young American violinist Hoopes and breakaway pianist Khozyainov perform an evening of Rachmaninoff and Tchaikovsky, including the latter’s “Fantasy Overture” from “Romeo and Juliet.”

March 3

WIRK RIB ROUNDUP at Coral Sky Amphitheatre at South Florida Fairgrounds, 601-7 Sansburys Way, West Palm Beach; $16-$30; 561/795-8883, westpalmbeachamphitheatre.com. WIRK, the country station of the Palm Beaches, returns with its star-studded annual music festival featuring Jake Owen, Luke Combs, Kane Brown, the Cadillac Three, Lanco and more.

March 6-11

THE ILLUSIONISTS at Kravis Center, 701 Okeechobee Blvd, West Palm Beach; $28-$68; 561/832-7469, kravis.org. This Broadway box-office smash is a fast-paced marriage of the magical and the macabre, the harrowing and the hilarious, featuring a dream team of conjurers specializing in magic subgenres from levitation and mentalism to grand illusions.

March 7

PETER YARROW at crest theatre, 51 n. swinton ave, Delray Beach; 8 p.m.; $57-$77; 561/243-7922, oldschoolsquare.org. Yarrow is the Peter of Peter, Paul & Mary, the folk-singing trio whose “Puff, the Magic Dragon” is the most famous drug anthem that’s not actually about drugs. Yarrow will perform this song, as well as other hits from the PP&M oeuvre.

March 7-8

“DAVinci & Michelangelo: the Titans Experience” at Mizner Park Cultural Center, 201 plaza real, Boca Raton; 7:30 p.m.; $25-$35; 844/672-2849, miznerparkculturalcenter.com. Performer and curator Mark Rodgers’ reverent solo theatre piece explores the Italian Renaissance through two of its undisputed geniuses—DaVinci and Michelangelo. These competitive contemporaries come alive through a multimedia presentation.

March 8

CHAD PREGRACKE at crest theatre, 51 n. swinton ave, Delray Beach; 2 p.m.; $32-$67; 561/243-7922, oldschoolsquare.org. Featured as a CNN “Hero,” environmentalist and lecturer Pregracke was working as a commercial shell diver when he decided to singlehandedly clean up the Mississippi River. He has since worked with more than 70,000 volunteers to remove more than 8 million pounds of debris from 17 U.S. rivers.

March 8-April 8

“BRIGADOON” at The Wick Theatre, 7901 N. Federal Highway, Boca Raton; $85; 561/995-2333, thewick.org. In Lerner and Loewe’s effervescent, time-traveling classic, a pair of New York tourists stumble upon the titular village in the Scottish Highlands, which materializes only once in a century, and begin to fall under its romantic spell. “Brigadoon” is produced often, but familiarity hardly lessens the impact of this magical musical.
