Resident’s arson damaged 28 condo units, police say

One 75-year-old woman was found dead in one of the 28 units Wednesday, according to Miami-Dade police. The woman’s body was found near the roof of a carport. Police say the woman died from smoke and burns.

On Sunday, the man was found in the condominium and was not able to get out of the carport area. He was taken to the hospital and later died.

The Florida Department of Law Enforcement is investigating. Police say the investigation is ongoing.

On Tuesday, police said the man was found in the carport area and was taken to the hospital.

The fire department responded to the scene and found a body. The body was later identified as a 75-year-old woman.

The man was taken to the hospital and later died.

The man died from smoke and burns.

The investigation is ongoing. It is not clear if the man was intentionally set on fire.
Two walk away barely a scratch after plane crash

By Linda Trischitta

The twin-engine engine of a Piper PA-32 airplane would not slow down. In stead of a smooth landing, the plane spiraled outward at 120 mph. It took off again and as it nudged, it crashed into a fence at Pompano Air park.

The two men inside walked away from their destruction; one with only a scratch. It was the second time these two did not sustain injuries. Pompano Beach Fire Rescue spokesperson Andy King said, “You had flip-flops on and he only needed a Band-Aid after treatment by paramedics. They were both happy to be
